GRITTLETON CRICKET CLUB: GCC VS MCC: INTRODUCTION

Servants and dependents of Mr. Neeld, the worthy member for Chippenham, who, to a praiseworthy desire to encourage every species of labour on his large property in this county, unites a wish to recreate and amuse them, after the duties of the day are over; and to further which a portion of the park is entirely given up to the several parishes in his possession and employ, the materials supplied, and every facility made, for playing the noble and truly English game of Cricket. (Devizes and Wilts Gazette, 22nd Aug 1850).

The first recorded game at Grittleton we have found is in the Bells Life paper, published in London on 26th August 1849, some 19 years before the historic photograph that triggered GCC to celebrate 150 Years in 2018 shown above. Please see the separate history document for more detail of the history of this historic Cricket Club.

GRITTLETON CC 1868-2018: 150 Not Out

Grittleton CC Vs Marylebone CC: 2nd September

The Clock & Photos

Mark Webb, GCC Chairman starts the day off by thanking the club 150th sponsors and introducing Ian James, who played for GCC between 1952 and 1976. Ian unveiled the commemorative pavilion clock. Team and GCC "Family" photos were taken.

Grittleton CC vs. Marylebone CC: 2nd September 2018

Back: GCC: Al. Kilfoil, Mark Webb, Charles Carrington, Andrew Leighton, Richard Saull, Paul Runacres. MCC: Andy Carroll, Dan Sutton, James Shackleton, Joe Hewton, Guy Bucknell.

THE TOSS

Rob Ward, GCC Captain, wins the toss using the 1865 penny as used in the cricket festival game. He "elects" to field. MCC Captain, Lt. Col. Alex Senneck, accepts in the presence of the MCC umpire, Ian Wright (left) and Wiltshire umpire Ron Dawson (right). The game was agreed to be a timed (using the new clock): 20 overs after 5:30 pm

MCC INNINGS

The MCC made steady progress in the 34 overs before lunch, making 159/3. They declared on 233/4 after 44 overs. Bucknell top scored with 76. Wickets were taken by Kilfoil, Williams, Jones and Ward. Huw Williams's bowling was economical at this level: 18/1 off 7 overs. Rob Ward gave it some air (right) and Josh Weston toils for no reward from the top (below). Full scorecard overleaf.

GRITTLETON CC INNINGS

GRITTLETON CC HOSPITALITY

Both lunch and tea were served, under the expert guidance of Peter and Jackie Cross. GCC are not used to serving wine, cheese and port, and the cakeage exceeded the usual standards. The MCC took it in their stride, as did Al. Kilfoil. The MCC captain thanked the “ladies of the village” and presented a commemorative plaque.

MEMBERS & FRIENDS

GCC was always and will always be a social club. Mark Runacres explains his split loyalties between MCC and GCC to Richard Wallis while club neighbours Ed King and Keith & Nicola Gay look on (top left). Ex players Andrew "Binary" Inchley, Mark "Vice" Readman and "Q" Grandison look on (top centre). Mike Taylor explains something too complicated for Smooth Jules Howgill to understand (top right). 13 Blazers on show (including Kate) in the middle and celebrations go on long into the night with Basford and Runacres confusing Andrew Carrington, and our favourite centurion, the Pavilion shines brightly to the right.
